

Kathleen Sallah

I have been married 47 years and am the mother of 3 girls and grandmother of 3.

I was born in Louisville, KY as my father was a graduate of West Point and consequently spent most of my early years on bases around the world.

I was educated in the Catholic School system and graduated from Central Catholic High School in Toledo, Oh.

I helped launch a national program called For the Fit of It based in Dallas, TX .

This was a program that taught women how to fit commercial sewing patterns and adjust them to fit their body.

I currently am the managing partner of Sallah Properties which concentrates on student housing and over 55 rentals. I am also involved in many commercial property ventures.
