

Totally Engaged Americans,

I really like the name of your organization! I assume I can skip the whole speech on what "We the People" really means! Ha ha! Thank you so much for writing me!! I wanted to send a letter to the Patriot Mail Project, and to the many, many people who've written to me. Since there were so many signatures on the card you guys sent me, I figured I'd include that letter along with this one, in hopes that maybe some of you would be proficient enough with computers to get my general letter all over the internet. Photograph it? Re-type it? However----

I am hoping for my letter to reach all of your social media accounts, and everybody's that you know---- and for it to make it to the Gateway Pundit, and Patriot Mail Project, and Pete Santilli's show--- and anyplace else you can think of!!

It was a very tough letter to write. Not because I didn't know what to say--- but because I have way TOO MUCH to say!! So the letter has a "choppy" feel to it because I had too many topics I wanted to cover, and had difficulty keeping it short. Sorry if it's boring to some... some things need said!

I also want to dispell the myth that we deserve equal breaks as Antifa & B.L.M. were given. That's apples and oranges! Have any of you ever gotten so mad that you wanted to steal a T.V.? No? Me either!! Predatorial behavior and defending the Constitution are NOT THE SAME!!

And to the people still saying about us: "Well, if they did any violence, they need held accountable!" --- to those people; I suggest you empty out your bank accounts and send it all to the Queen, because clearly, you don't understand where freedom came from!

I'm not promoting violence in general, but on January 6th, the violence done by the Patriots was reflexive; in response to the killing and beating of innocent women and elderly, by the Capitol Police. And in my humble opinion; the "amount of violence" from "We The People" was just enough to stop them from doing more killing than they did.

The entirety of Jan. 6th was this: The cops would rile the crowd up with either 'flash bang' grenades, tear gas, mace, or physically beating somebody. (A woman, in almost every incident.) Then the crowd would settle down, and they'd rile up another area of the crowd. Then when the crowd didn't get as riled as they needed in order to gun us down --- they invited people in to the capitol. Jan. 6th was a set-up and cover-up --- both!

I can personally attest that there would've been more Ashli's and Roseanne's killed by those cops if it weren't for a small dose of "violence" from a Patriot or two!

Most of us are God-fearing Patriots that didn't think twice when duty was upon us. Please help spread this message!! Americans deserve the truth!! God bless you all!

Thank You,
