

Yellow Patriots,

Hello! This is Pete Schwartz here. First and foremost, I'd like to thank each and every one of you for writing me! I don't mean that in a passing "tip of the hat" kind of way, but rather; sincere gratitude! I've never experienced such widespread acts of kindness before, and I assure you that; the impact of your letters far outweighed the effort! Thank you---

I'll try and keep this letter brief, as a letter to the general public, and then write more to each of you individually; as I'm able to. I'll tell you a little about myself, and then explain a little about January 6th, 2021 and what led up to it!

I'm a 48yrs old traveling welder, biker, and Christian. Although I was born in Peoria, Illinois --- I've lived all over the States, and am constantly travelling for work. I've called Kentucky "home" for the past 8yrs, but my possessions spent a lot more time there than I have. Just last year; I was in Houston, TX for the majority of the year. Charleston, MO
Rock Hill, SC Charlotte, NC Marysville, OH Sioux Falls, SD
Uniontown, PA --- etc., etc. I've travelled off-&-on and lived many places since the early 90's, so there's a reasonable chance that our paths have crossed at some point.

I was raised in a good, Christian home but didn't get saved, nor care about Christianity; until nearly 10yrs. ago. I regularly attend church, but because of my lifestyle/career, I'm perpetually the "new guy" at churches all across America.

I've been to far too many churches to possibly mention, and that's given me a unique perspective, as well as some pretty crazy stories! I'm a light-heavyweight in theology, with no denominational anchors, which also lends a unique perspective. Some of my favorite theologians include: John McArthur (Calvinist), Louis Forlines (Free Will Baptist), David Pawson (Pentacostal), etc. People bound by the doctrines in their church's Constitution miss out on so much!

I both lived, and worked, in NYC on Sept. 11th, 2001. I was present, (on 28th & 5th Ave.), to witness, live - the attacks on the Trade Towers. Aside from the indescribable trauma of the event itself: I was put in a mind-numbing shock that: A.) the media was lying about WHAT I was witnessing WHILE I was witnessing it --- and continued lying ever after. B.) Our own government, (who I'd previously trusted), facilitated our own demise, and has continued to do so --- even still --- with the exception of Donald J. Trump. This is unacceptable.

My eyes were opened wider than I cared for. Hot rods, Harleys, and metallurgy have always been my roots, but here in the past decade; my life has been dominated by eschatology, (the Biblical study of the End Times), and picked up politics in the admixture. (In welding/metallurgy: the parent metal gives up 1 lbs. of metal into the admixture for every 4 lbs. of filler metal; in Ferrous metals. So I thought the term appropriate here also!)

I believe we are either on the verge of a worldwide revival ---- or entering the End Times, fully! And I'm inclined to believe the latter! To anybody wanting a "crash course" in Eschatology, I strongly recommend Paul Dorgan's - End Times Seminars (8 sessions on YouTube.com).

I've been preparing for battle for quite a few years now. Spiritual battle, Civil war, guerrilla warfare --- whatever! So I kind of felt like I got caught with my pants down on January 6th, 2021! I was prepared for Antifa or BLM, if they wanted to start trouble, but I honestly wasn't expecting our country to get stolen from "We The People"!

The first paragraphs of the Declaration of Independence reads as though it was written specifically for January 6th!! And our Constitution fully supports the fundamental ideologies of it!! It is our DUTY to "throw off" a corrupt & tyrannical government! Our right to vote, and our 2nd ammendment rights are the foundation to every other right we have!

So the real question about January 6th shouldn't have anything to do with whether or not somebody is "guilty" or "not guilty" of violence, or how many F.B.I. agents were involved in "entrapment" to further a fake narrative, or any of the other deceptions being promoted by the left, by the R.I.N.O.'s, and the fake Patriots! The real question is: WHEN does a Patriot's "duty" begin?

A Patriot is called; by duty, to protect his country when necessary. Whether you "back the blue" or not; it's the oath they take, not the uniform, that's important.

And on that day; the police beat and killed innocent protestors while protecting the greatest act of treason ever committed against our Country!! So when does that duty begin? For myself, I ask:

- When the election numbers are suspiciously changing in the middle of the night?

No. We have many Constitutional safeguards and higher authorities to deal with this type of thing.

- When Pennsylvania, the state I'm working in, starts to go against their own Constitution to assist voter fraud?

No. There are Constitutional safeguards, such as the Electoral College and the certification thereof, to prevent an election being stolen... but get ready!

- When the Vice-President of the United States knowingly certifies a fraudulent election?

Yep! It's "go time"! There is no law or Constitution at that point!

Many nights I wake up in a rage! I feel like my actions that day were within God's Law, but that I could've done 100x more and still been Constitutionally correct! And sitting here in isolation, after losing my home, my marriage --- everything... I sometimes regret, with rage, that I didn't do more!!

I have good days and bad days in here. I get angry at the other "Patriots" for selling out. The ones getting "plea deals" are either turning in other Patriots, (snitching), renouncing the Constitution in the plea bargains, or... in one way or another... bowing to the government's corruption. Many of the "plea agreements" require the person to sign papers saying that the election is not justification for anything they deem "criminal", and that they won't sue the gov't, etc.

I've lost everything in my life before. But I was a lot younger then. I can recoup some, I suppose, but I don't have another 30yrs of hard work left in me. I could use a little help. Of all the things I've been through; I can't think of anything worse than working all those years and then still having to worry about my future!

I waited until later in life to get married... so it'd be right. Then as soon as this happened, the woman I'd married started cheating and doing drugs, and then confessed that to me after they'd spent all my money. Somebody in here set up an account for me. If it's on your heart to help: I appreciate it, and God bless!!
